

Charitable deed: Muhyiddin (centre), Lee (right) and Star Foundation trustee Datuk Dr Mohd Aminuddin Rouse (third from left) taking a group photo with representatives of the six charities in Kuala Lumpur yesterday. They are (from left) Ngau, Chew, Sri Dhammaratana, Jeffrey Ng, Dr Ahmad Faizal and Karina Ng.

Teeing up for a good cause

KUALA LUMPUR: The Star Charity Golf Challenge 2011 helped raised RM300,000 in aid of six charities at its inaugural event at the Kuala Lumpur Golf and Country Club yesterday.

The event was organised in partnership with Star Foundation, the charity arm of Star Publications (M) Bhd.

Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin and Star Publications' executive deputy chairman Datuk Vincent Lee later presented mock cheques of RM50,000 to representatives of the six charities.

The representatives are MyKasih Foundation chairman Ngau Boon Keat, Hospis Malaysia council member and secretary Kathleen Chew, Ti-Ratana Welfare Society founder and adviser Datuk K. Sri Dhammaratana, Alzheimer's Disease Foundation Malaysia president Datuk Jeffrey Ng Chin Heng, Mercy Malaysia president Datuk Dr Ahmad Faizal Mohd Perdaus and Persatuan Kanak-Kanak Istimewa Hulu Langat committee member Karina Ng.