Cheer for 100 families

PETALING JAYA: A year-end party was held for 100 MyKasih families from Kelana Jaya and Kayu Ara.

The party, held at Ara Hill in Ara Damansara, saw the guests treated to a sumptuous luncheon and a host of activities including games, a colouring contest and a magic show by "Banana The Clown".

All the 100 families are recipients of the MyKasih "Love My Neighbourhood" food aid from Dialog Group Bhd.

The company has been their corporate donor since 2010.

The recipients receive a monthly financial assistance of RM80, deposited into their MyKad.

The allowance enables them to shop for essential food items such as rice, bread and flour.

Dr Ngau Boon Keat, co-founder of MyKasih Foundation and executive chairman of Dialog Group said: "It is especially heartening to hear many of them telling us how the programme has helped them tremendously in alleviating their financial burden of putting food on the table."
